Subject of the Disclosure

Disclosure in relation to SEC Directive dated 12 March 2020

Background/Description of the Disclosure

Pursuant to the notice issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission dated 12 March 2020, GT Capital Holdings, Inc. ("GT Capital" or the "Corporation") hereby informs the public that any possible risk and impact of the COVID-19 virus to the core operations of the Corporation have yet to be fully ascertained due to the yet unfolding events of the situation. Nonetheless, GT Capital believes that all of its business units shall remain operational.

In the interim, said risks, if any, will be mitigated by business continuity strategies set in place by the Corporation and its component companies. Furthermore, GT Capital coordinates with its component companies regarding their respective business operations and continuity plans.

Measures currently undertaken by GT Capital to mitigate the risks of COVID-19 on its operations include proper and frequent sanitation of office premises, cancellation of large group meetings in person, internal ban on foreign business travel, and the practice of social distancing through remote communication, among others. The Corporation is also seriously considering flexible work arrangements and split operations.

The Corporation will continue to abide by and comply with all rules and regulations issued by the government in relation to COVID-19.
